

13- He under oath that the car was being driven slowly at the time of accident.

1. mumbled 2. testified 3. resigned 4. devoted

14- Have you committed a murder that you stand there dumb as a.....?

1. mire 2. snake 3. fish 4. lark

15- This is the very where the murder was committed.

1. dock 2. spot 3. latch 4. strap

16- It is his ambition to meet Maria Callas in the.....

1. street 2. face 3. flesh 4. skin

17- If you lose something you generally.....

1. look at it 2. look it over 3. look for it 4. look it up

18- No one in his would have done such a thing.

1. intelligence 2. reason 3. senses 4. mind

19- Robert hasn't got a very strong character, you know. He generally runs with the hare and hunts with the hounds. These sentences means.....

1. he generally gives his loyalties to both sides
2. he generally deceives both sides
3. he generally irritates both sides
4. he generally exploits both sides

20- I liked him at once, and we've been friends ever since. Liked here is equivalent to

1. took after 2. took in 3. took up 4. took to

21- If I take the flat, will you do it.....?

1. away 2. for 3. up 4. with

22- A faint hope is still..... in his heart.

1. trembling 2. crumpling 3. flickering 4. prespiring

23- He arrived with his rifle..... over his shoulder.

1. slung 2. gulp 3. gibber 4. deliver

24- There may be a if there is an increase in the price of food-stuffs.

1. ruse 2. riot 3. row 4. roar

25- He is not philanthropist; every thing he does is

1. for certain 2. for effort 3. for effect 4. for gain

26- They were in to silence by the sternness of her voice.

1. dismissed 2. twittered 3. awed 4. plowed

27- How do you get..... your boss?

1. on with 2. over 3. in to 4. round

28- We had a whale of a time. This sentence means.....

1. we enjoyed ourselves 2. we spent too much money
3. we had a lot of problems 4. we were early

29- It's a great pity, but he has let himself go to..... recently. He must pull himself together.

1. ruin 2. seed 3. shabbiness 4. old-age

30- I've got the bone to pick with you. This sentence means.....

1. I have something to complain 2. I have something to explain
3. I have something to testify 4. I have something to protect