

1-The historical use of advice to define counsel still isand is the cause of much conflict.

1. confusion 2. prevalent 3. interpretation 4. emphaized

2-counselling is conducted in privacy and the discussion is

1. facilitating 2. autonomous 3. confidential 4. independent

3-Possibly culture shock can bewhen people listen to one another.

1. communicated 2. specialized 3. purchased 4. diminished

4-Psychologists propose several different ways for theof long lasting problems.

1. remedy 2. remember 3. remind 4. remedy

5-There is not a substantial difference betweenand assessment .

1. evaluate 2. evaluation 3. educate 4. education

6-In ancient times , mental illness was thought to be connected with possession by demons and evil

1. mesmerism 2. judging 3. spirits 4. agents

7-In presenting these advantages , the therapist should..... the parents' primary arguments in ways that decrease their validity.

1. reframe 2. undergo 3. involve 4. impact

8-The teachers-parentsmeets every month.

1. organization 2. organize 3. reward 4. function

9-Career counseling is anprocess designed to assist individuals with career development problems.

1. interpersonal 2. unsatisfactory 3. indecisive 4. international

10-Some parents do notto educational system.

1. contribution 2. contribute 3. contributor 4. contributory

11-All resources should beto help the patients.

1. utilized 2. utilization 3. utilize 4. utilizable

12-Most counselors find it hard to acquire andtechniques that reflect feelings .

1. expression 2. reflection 3. content 4. implement

13-The shadow part of the personal unconscious is considered to beand generally not consciously nor socially acceptable.

1. impulsive 2. dominate 3. prelude 4. primordial

14-Frankl employs considerable amounts of evangelizing and verbalin his method of trying to help others find meaning in their lives.

1. persuasion 2. existance 3. paradox 4. symptom

15-increasing social interest and social skills are alsocounseling goals .

1. apropos 2. primary 3. approved 4. fulfilling

16-Freudthe concept of the developing organism whose behavior was dynamic

1. believing 2. perceived 3. originated 4. emphasized

17-My advisors approach the problem quite

1. profession 2. professionally 3. professionalism 4. interested

18-The student will show an increased tolerance for

1. defense 2. immaturity 3. frustration 4. improvement

19-The critical events of most human behavior are the enviromentalof the behavior.

1. consequences 2. reinforcement 3. instrument 4. disapproval

20-That client changes are butremoved that emerge later in other forms of behavior.

1. symptoms 2. affection 3. extinction 4. solidarity

21-Emotion is biased and prejudiced thought or an intrinsicallyand cognitive process.

1. neurotic 2. appraisals 3. bolstering 4. attitudinal

22-Personality , according to Ellis , consists primarily of beliefs , constructs , or

1. powers 2. attitudes 3. emotions 4. observations

23-Gestalt therapy is anrather than a direct modifying of behavior.

1. exploration 2. experiment 3. awareness 4. root

24-Some clients try hard totheir failures

1. justify 2. justification 3. justified 4. justifying

25- Based on research directions, knapp proposed anclassification system of nonverbal behavior.

1. unpleasant 2. appropriate 3. elementary 4. eightfold

26-is generally implied or indicative in interpretative techniques.

1. concept 2. causation 3. reaction 4. indication

27- The methods used for aiding people to live togetheron an alarmingly shrinking planet are still rudimentary.

1. amicably 2. sadly 3. bewilderingly 4. alarmingly

28- There may be a betterfor counseling .

1. define 2. definition 3. definite 4. definitely

29- The reason is partly that the person being helped experiences a loss of

1. self-esteem 2. self-confidence
3. self- dependence 4. self- concept

30- Thosein helping relationships seem to be markedly out of step with the beat of today's drums.

1. conducted 2. engaged 3. controled 4. advanced